

Hello,

As per latest survey, over 84% of patients search online before selecting a physician and Wikipedia is the most trusted and preferred source of information online. Trusted by millions, Wikipedia has been ranked as 7th most visited website globally.

To increase your popularity online, it is recommended to create a Wikipedia page about yourself or your practice and for a new Wikipedia page to go up, there are certain eligibility criteria. That means not everyone is immediately a good candidate to feature on Wikipedia.

Get in touch with us to find out if you're eligible to feature on Wikipedia with our Complimentary Wikipedia Eligibility Assessment Service.

A Wikipedia page will also assist you with your overall online reputation management. As it is often the first thing to appear on search engine results, a Wikipedia page will instantly give you and/or your practice more credibility.

Get started today by replying to this email with following details and request your Complimentary Wikipedia Eligibility Assessment.

Details Required:

- First and Last Name:
- Website URL (Leave blank, if you do not have one)
- Blog (if any)
- City or Zip
- Phone number
- Achievements to highlight (interviews, press mentions, awards etc, please provide links/URLs)
- LinkedIn Profile (Leave blank, if you do not have one)
- Facebook Profile (Leave blank, if you do not have one)
- Business/Practice Name

Please note, since this assessment has confidential information, we prefer communicate only with the doctor or practice owner and not anybody else.

Warm Regards

Thanks
